16 November Many nurses in Egypt have not received formal nursing education, resulting in poor care and risks for patients. The Harpur Nursing School is responding to this through its practical and comprehensive two-year nursing programme. We pray for the continued passion and dedication of its current cohort of student nurses.

Today's flowers are given by Pat Shirra in loving memory of her mum, Dolly Hemmings.

Thank you everyone for my lovely flowers. It's good to be part of a caring community. I am well on the road to recovery. Love from Joyce Brown.

Thank you for the lovely flowers and all your kind thoughts. Andy and I are doing okay. I just need to get walking. Love Brenda Mackintosh and Andy.

Envelopes will be available after church services on 16 and 23 November, for donations to be made towards All We Can (Methodist Relief and Development Fund) who are supporting people affected by the recent hurricane in the Caribbean and Americas. Please give what you can, but only what you are able. Alternatively you may wish to give online at <https://www.allwecan.org.uk/> (where you can look for their different appeals around the world in the filter under 'Give'). Many thanks from the Leadership Team.

Angels. On Sunday 30 November Tracy Shaw will welcome the angels in the morning service. If you have angels ready please leave them in my pigeon hole or in the Office. It is also fine to bring angels to the service on 30th. This year we are very pleased to be joining with the Knitting Group from Gilbert Lodge and sending some of our angels to the Neonatal Unit at QMC. I should like to thank Jennifer Bostock for making us aware of this request. A big thank-you to all who have helped. These angels bring so much joy to those who receive them. Mary Teale

Circuit Service for the admission of Peter Gray as a Local Preacher Sunday 7 December, 6pm at Beeston Methodist Church. After a long process of preparation including study, conducting worship and review, the Circuit Meeting has given approval for Peter to be admitted to the office and ministry of a Local Preacher. You are warmly invited to join in this special occasion of worship, commitment and celebration - we look forward to seeing you there!

As building work in the church continues, the Redevelopment Group asks that you include the following in your prayers:

Give thanks that the heating in the hall is working again.

Ask for inspiration to church groups and individuals as they prayerfully consider how to use the updated sanctuary space.

Ask that we soon gain a clear idea of the end date for the building work, so that we can plan a smooth handover.

Thank God for those who faithfully set up the hall for our service every Sunday morning and ask that he is with those who continue to find this time of transition unsettling difficult.

As we approach the end of the year it is time to order your IBRA Bible Reading Notes. The cost this year is £15.99 plus postage for the whole year. I have compared this price with other sets of notes and in some cases it is cheaper because IBRA is an annual cost and several other sets of notes are only for 4 or 6 copies per year with the resultant increase in postage. I already have 2 people wanting copies and when we require 3 copies we get a 10% discount and the postage is reduced as well. If you would like to order a copy please let me have your name before the 7 December. Thank you, Lesley Gray 9222352 or lesleygray2121@gmail.com.

Sungbin Cho invites you to The Rosette: a close circle concert on Thursday 20 November at 8pm. Rather than performing on a distant stage like many traditional concert settings, he hopes to create a shared space, with the listeners being brought together in a rosette-like circle. Sungbin's new programme features a thoughtful collection of works by Morel, Weiss, Tansman, York, Coste, and Assad - pieces that together trace a path through the expressive depth of the guitar's voice, played by Sungbin. Entry is by tickets only which are available free from <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/sungbin-cho-the-rosette-a-close-circle-concert-nottingham-tickets-1916687226089> If you need help getting a ticket, please speak to Karen in the church office.
